

6516205720.txt

i believe that i have a right to listen and use what ever type of radio i choose without the fcc or anyone else telling me. what a better way to get the new out then through a station that we choose. The air ways are free to anyone I believe that satellite radio is one of the best things out there. I hope they keep up the good work.